

Nateesha Thomassen

PNH President, Marg Jucker with Coordinator, Nateesha Thomassen

The Portarlington Neighbourhood House welcomed Nateesha to the role of part-time coordinator in January 2021.

Nateesha has a strong community focused background in local government spanning twelve years. Prior to joining PNH she was with the Golden Shire Plains Council as the Community Places Officer, a role that encompassed the coordination of three community centres across the Shire.

Nateesha has undertaken a range of community engagement and development activities including:

- Acting Team Leader – Recreation & Youth
- Bannockburn Cultural Centre Coordinator
- A secondment undertaking the Healthy Aging Officer role; and
- Assistant to the Director of Community Services

Nateesha's varied roles across the spectre of community have resulted in her having a genuine appreciation of the needs of community and being able to build relationships. In conjunction with her community focused roles, Nateesha has also developed an outstanding suite of other attributes, including planning, day to day centre operations, event coordination, program evaluation and report writing.

Nateesha can be contacted via email coordinator@portnh.org.au or by phone on 5259 2290.
