

Code of Conduct for PNH

Purpose & Scope

The PNH Code of Conduct describes the PNH desired behaviours, and what are designated as unacceptable behaviours, for members and staff. These desired behaviours support PNH Vision, Values and the strategic direction as set out in the PNH Strategic Plan.

Policy

PNH members and staff will support the desired Values and Behaviours as described in the following table headed, 'PNH Values & Code of Conduct'.

Non-compliance

Members may report alleged breaches of unacceptable behaviours via the complaints procedure, or in writing to the Program Manager, or Committee of Management.

Members exhibiting unacceptable behaviours may be subjected to the Discipline procedures as outlined in the PNH Constitution. Staff exhibiting unacceptable behaviours will be subjected to disciplinary procedures as per the award.

Depending on the nature of the alleged behavioural offence, the following actions may be taken:

- No action
- Warning
- Disciplinary action that may lead to suspension of membership or expulsion from the Association (as per the PNH Constitution for Members), or to termination for PNH employees
- Reporting to Police of any perceived criminal behaviours, or to meet any legal reporting requirements
