

WRITING GROUPS

FICTION FIDDLERS

4.30pm on the 4th Thursday of the month

With Jenny

This is a group for either the new enthusiast or someone who has been enjoying the pleasure of writing for some time.

Each month, a prompt is selected for a story, poem or piece of prose. Participants are tasked to write using the agreed prompt.

The group meets on the last Thursday of each month and all participants share their work by reading it to the group. At the end of the session, a mutually agreed prompt is declared for the following month.

Come along to this group and connect with others who share the enjoyment of writing.
